

CRANBERRY TOWNSHIP WILL KEEP TRADITION AND CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN FROM 6-8 P.M. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, RAIN OR SHINE.

The Township is leaving it up to residents to decide whether to participate or not. This is not a mandatory event and families should make the best decision for their own family. There will be added Police, Fire and EMS personnel on duty to ensure a safe night for residents.

Here are a few tips to help navigate through the evening amidst the COVID pandemic:

- Do not leave candy in a bowl for kids to take. It's best to designate one person to hand out candy.
- Designate an outdoor spot to pass out treats.
- Treats should be individually wrapped.
- Face masks should be worn.
- Gloves should not be worn, as they would need to be changed regularly. Parents should have hand sanitizer readily available for children during treat gathering.
- It is not recommended to sanitize packaging. The transmission of the coronavirus on these types of surfaces is low. But, if parents want to sanitize the packages, they should.
- Anxious parents should not participate. It's best to buy your own Halloween treats and give to your kids – instead of being anxious about participation.
- Bring hand sanitizer and require kids to wear masks. Also, don't forget flashlights, glow sticks, or any reflective material on clothing. Bring water to hydrate children during the walk.

FALL FUN AT THE FARMERS MARKET

As the weather gets colder, the Cranberry Township Farmers Market is winding down.

But that doesn't mean there aren't great chances to buy everything from fresh produce to locally brewed beer.

A partnership with the Pittsburgh North Regional Chamber, the market runs from 3-7 p.m. every Friday through October 23 in the front parking lot of the Municipal Center.

In addition to farm-fresh produce, the market offers craft beer, food trucks, crafts and other services.

NEIGHBORHOOD CONNECTIONS

Want to know what's happening right in your back yard – literally?

The Township's Neighborhood Forums offer a great chance for representatives of the Home Owners Associations to learn about what is happening throughout the Township. It also offers an opportunity to share the good news in their neighborhoods.

Attention HOA representatives - the next HOA Neighborhood Forum is scheduled for October 12. To learn more, visit CranberryTownship.org/HOA.

CAST YOUR VOTE!

Election Day- November 3

Applications for mail-in ballots must received by 5 PM on October 27

It's crunch time, and Election Day is almost here!

While COVID-19 has created challenges to achieving high voter turnout, Election Day provides the chance to make your voice heard.

That's why there are more options to cast your ballot this year, including traditional in-person voting, mail-in ballots and absentee ballots. If voting by mail, be sure to act early to ensure the ballot is received by the due date to make your vote count!

To find information about voting, visit CranberryTownship.org/Vote.
